

Properties of the Function Object

| | |
|-----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| length | Returns the number of arguments that are expected to be passed (read only). |
| prototype | Allows the object to be customized by adding new properties and methods. |

Methods of the Function Object

| | |
|---------|------------------------------------------------------------|
| apply() | Allows you to apply a method from one function to another. |
| call() | Allows you to call a method from another object. |